IN MEMORY OF:

Matt K. Englehart

June 9, 1978-August 1, 1996

A harsh grave, an early end,
A brief but beautiful life, my friend

Miss you intensely, question that you had to go,
We hope you are happy, somehow we know

When they told us that our friend had died,
Cold deeper than cold, we tried not to cry

You will always reside in our hearts,
We can never really be that far apart

So our tears flow again for one last time,
Your death, you see, had no rhythm, no rhyme

You are always with us, close by our side,
Our heart's dear songs in you we confide.

Matts Famous Quote:

"I'm running for president, who's going to vote for me?"
